Action Requested: Adoption of Retirement Memoir

Marie Lozon, M.D., clinical professor of emergency medicine and clinical professor of pediatrics in the Medical School, retired from active faculty status on January 14, 2024.

Dr. Lozon completed her M.D. degree at Wayne State University School of Medicine in 1986. She then completed a residency in pediatrics at the University of Chicago-Wyler Children's Hospital in 1989. Dr. Lozon then completed a fellowship in pediatric emergency medicine at the University of Chicago-Wyler Children's Hospital in 1991. In 1991, Dr. Lozon began her career at the University of Michigan, being appointed a lecturer in the Department of Pediatrics. She was then appointed to clinical assistant professor in the Department of Emergency Medicine and clinical assistant professor in the Department of Pediatrics in 1994. In 2002, she was appointed to clinical associate professor in the Department of Emergency Medicine and clinical associate professor in the Department of Pediatrics. In 2017, she was appointed to clinical professor in the Department of Emergency Medicine and clinical professor in the Department of Pediatrics. In addition, Dr. Lozon has served as chief of staff since 2019.

During her time here, Dr. Lozon has been a dedicated teacher, research collaborator, and clinician. She served as the associate chief clinical officer of Mott Children's Hospital from 2017-2018, and currently serves as the associate chief for emergency management operations. In her role as chief of staff, she serves as a leader in the Office of Clinical Affairs and has been instrumental in helping further the goals and mission of the Office of Clinical Affairs for the University of Michigan.

The Regents now salute this distinguished faculty member by naming Marie Lozon, clinical professor emerita of emergency medicine and clinical professor emerita of pediatrics.
